¹ An example of a Standard Will is when all of the estate passes to immediate family.

² An example of a Comprehensive Will includes situations involving blended families, a large number of beneficiaries, ongoing funds to be held on trust and uneven distributions to family.

³ An example of a Complex Will involves business assets, partnerships, companies, establishing trusts, life interests and right of residence (this means someone can stay in your home for their lifetime before it goes to beneficiaries).

⁴ Where fees are listed as from, additional fees (if applicable) will be charged on a time and attendance hourly rate as scheduled.

⁵ Time and attendance is charged on a part hour basis, pro rata to the applicable hourly rate.
